

Professor Dame Sally Davies:

- Research can help to reduce peoples' hearing problems
- Research works best if it involves patients. It also works best when it involves private companies that develop products, e.g. hearing aids and cochlear implants