

Professor Dame Sally Davies:

- My job is great because I can see research money being used to help patients. I can see that patients are very involved in research.
- Important science is being used to improve patient care.
- We are asking important questions.
- This is very good quality research.